RAGING BEAST

© JAWX 1985

THE GAME

You must make as many 'passes' as possible using only your red cloak. If you last long enough in the ring with the mighty bull Alfonso, a loop will be thrown from the crowd which you will have to place over the bulls head. If you succeed, you will see your name on the winners poster . . . the glory will be yours. But . . . you will have to re-enter the ring to face Alfonso again, and he will be even angrier. It is always possible that the bull fight will become a rodeo. Don't worry if this happens. You can become a real expert with some practice, and it is possible to ride on the bulls back for a long time accumulating bonus points in the process.
